

Please review the flyer, from your child's school, for the WoWScience adventures offered at the school.

There is NOT a registration fee for the WoWScience adventures however new students that join the adventures and continue in the science club, during the academic year, will need to pay the $35 new member registration fee for the science club; this will include a lab coat.

Only those that have paid a member's fee, qualify for the discounted returning-member registration fee of $15 as they have already received their lab coat.

Space is limited therefore the adventurer will be added to the roster once we receive the registration and payment. If the roster is full when the payment is received, a refund will be issued.

Adventure fee adjustments will not be made for student absences. Once a child is enrolled for the summer science adventure, their spot has been reserved therefore there will not be any refunds on missed classes.
